THE '65

WILDCAT

DIAMOND R-4 SCHOOL
DIAMOND, MISSOURI

FOREWORD

The '65 WILDCAT is a book of memories for all of us at D. H. S. We, the staff, have tried to save the outstanding moments, along with some of the everyday activities.

All of us at Diamond have come far this past year under the guidance of our teachers and sponsors. The annual staff hopes this annual will be one that you will treasure and show to posterity.

AUGUST-SEPTEMBER

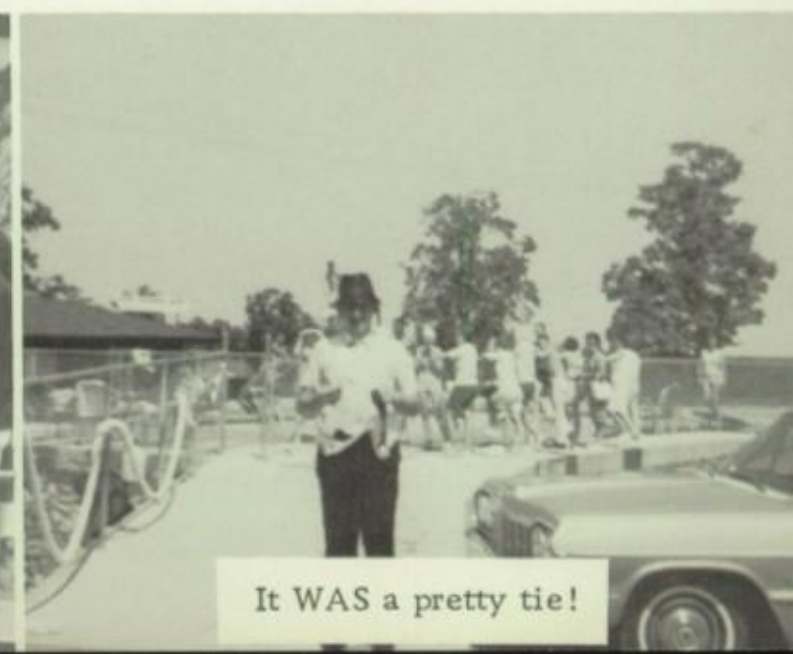

Although school officially began on August 28, many of us remembered school activities from the summer. The band traveling to Sedalia for the Missouri State Fair and Girls' State and Boys' State representatives going their separate ways for a "trip of memories" were just a few of them.

The students of Diamond R-4 School returned to their classrooms after much planning and rearranging of schedules. They discovered many new faces, including seven new teachers, and a new routine to follow. There were new experiences for first graders through high school students. The first graders began a new reading program, while "older" students amused themselves with new courses.

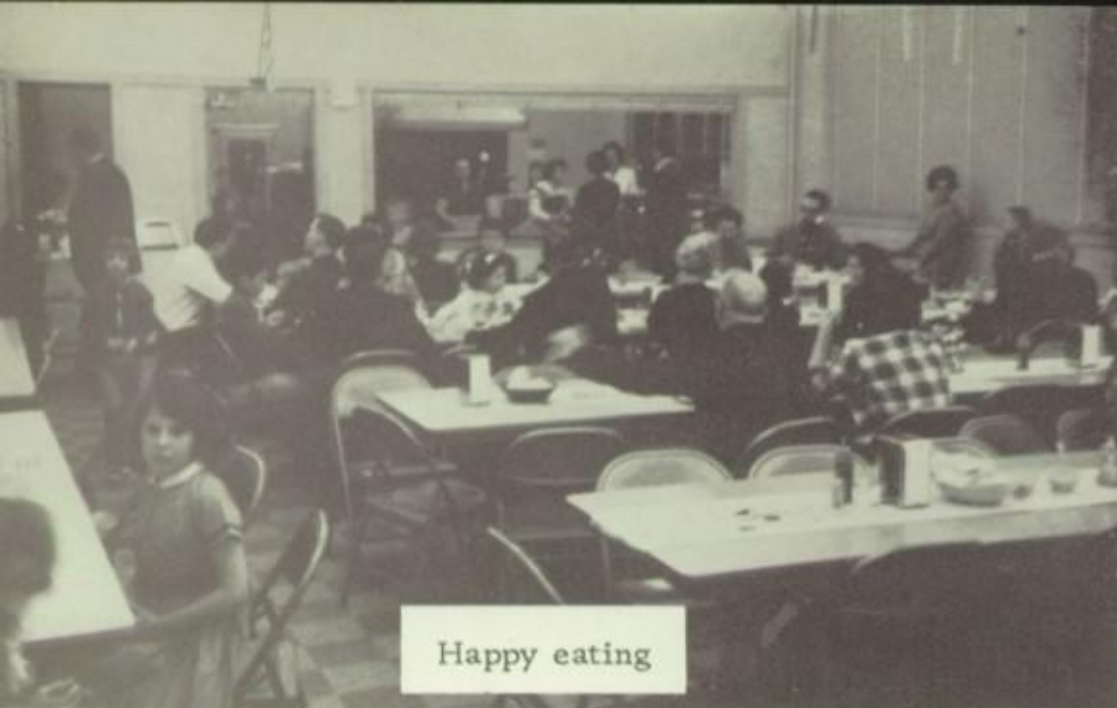

September was a month of parties and an off-beat Senior Sneak Day to Rockaway Beach and Silver Dollar City. Organizations met for the first time, electing officers and planning work for the year.

Aren't we cute?

It WAS a pretty tie!

OCTOBER

The first major activity of October was the P. T. A. Chuckwagon Supper, which was a tremendous success. It was followed by a Talent Show, won by Mrs. Mullin's first grade and the Freshmen.

The annual F. F. A. Barnwarming was another highlight of the month. The evening of fun was climaxed as Georgia Turner was crowned Chapter Sweetheart.

Basketball practice began in October, but almost took a "back seat" until the World Series was over.

Not to be left out, the faculty and school board enjoyed their annual banquet at the Hereford House in Neosho.

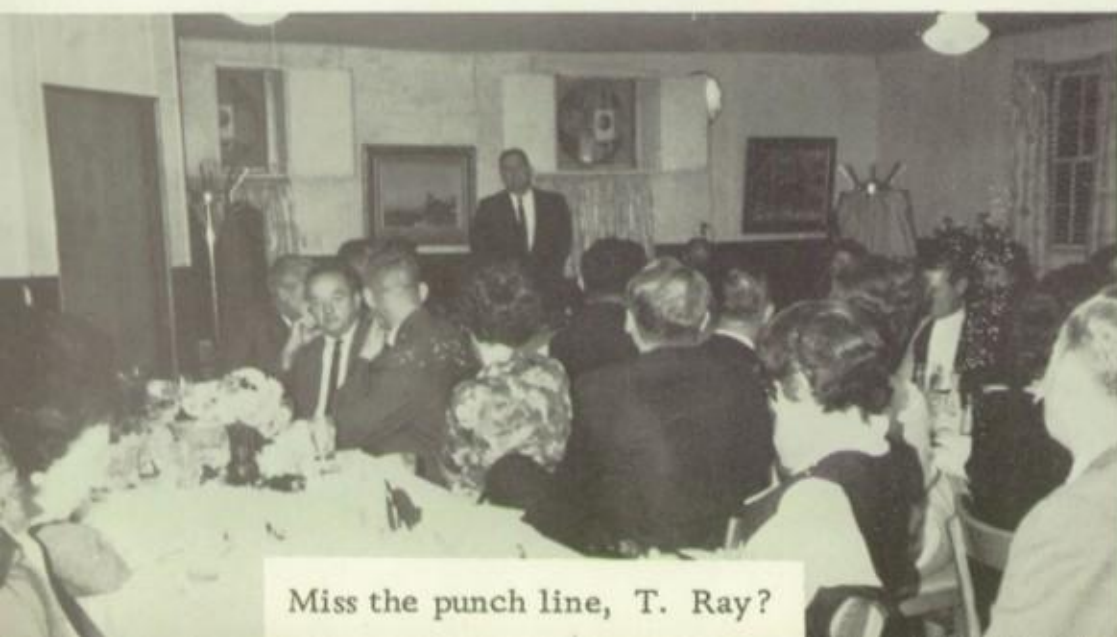

Boo-o-o-o! Spooks and goblins invaded D. H. S. as the month's activities ended with Halloween parties in the elementary grades.

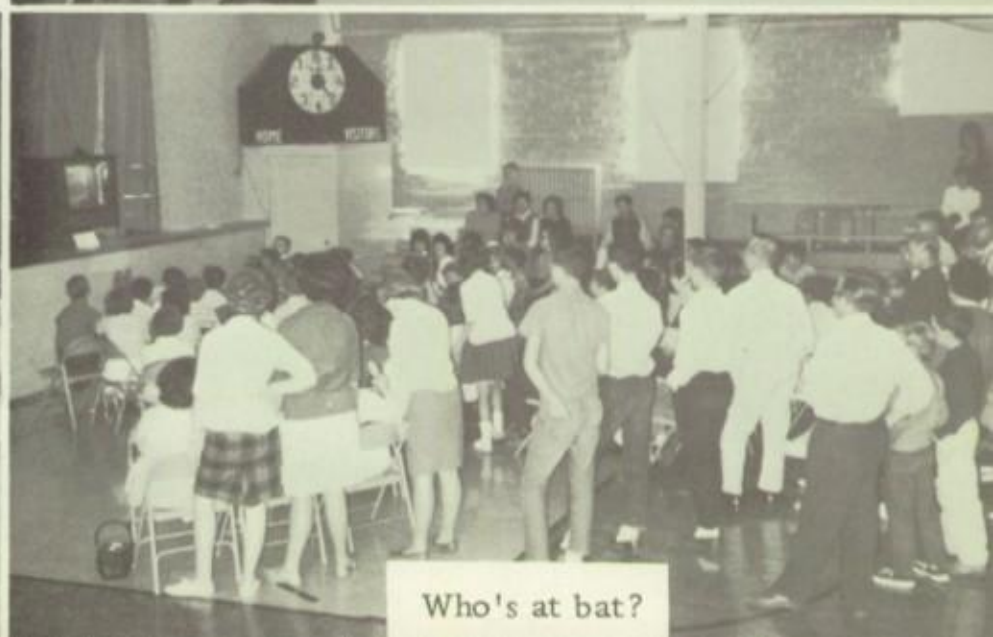

But, Bruce! You don't have any whiskers!

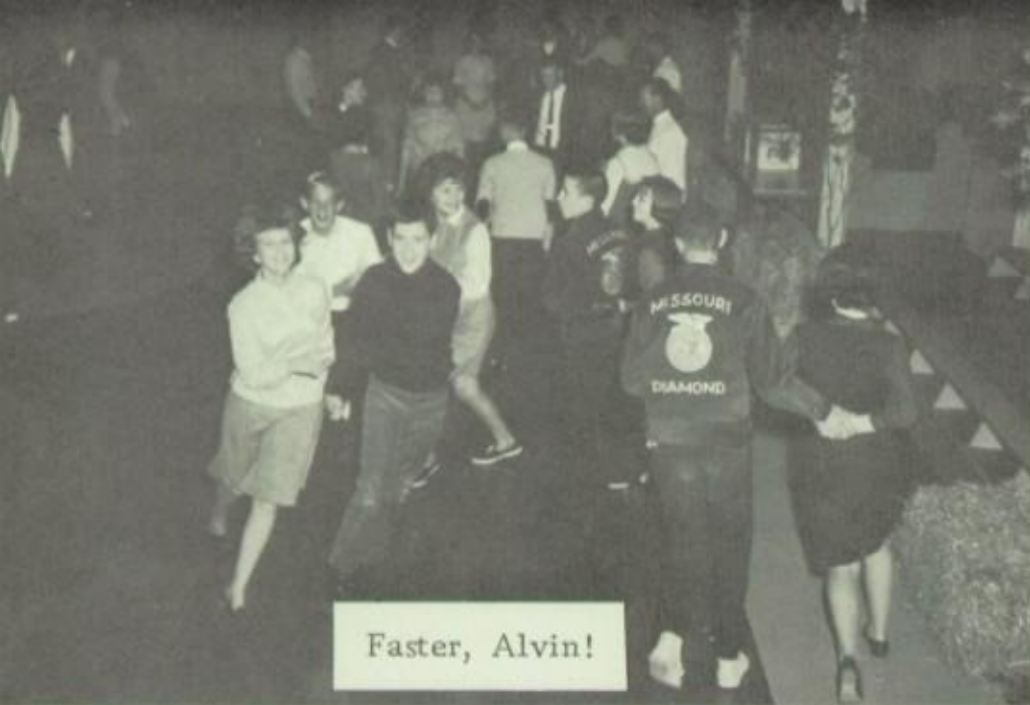

Diamond's beauties???

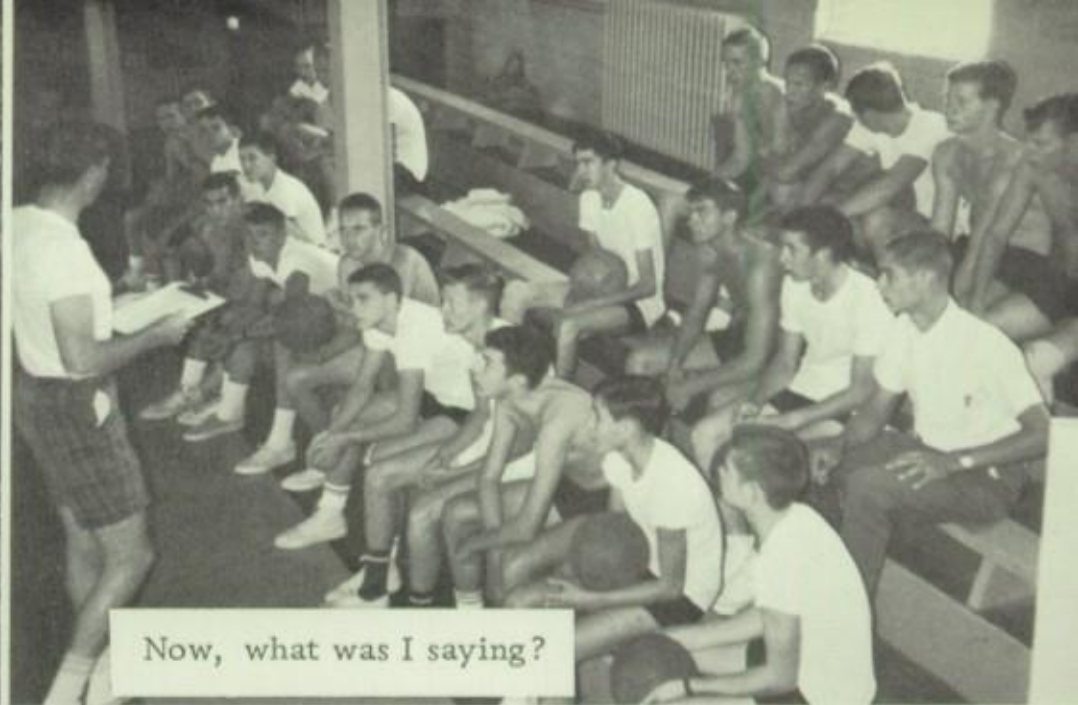

Miss the punch line, T. Ray?

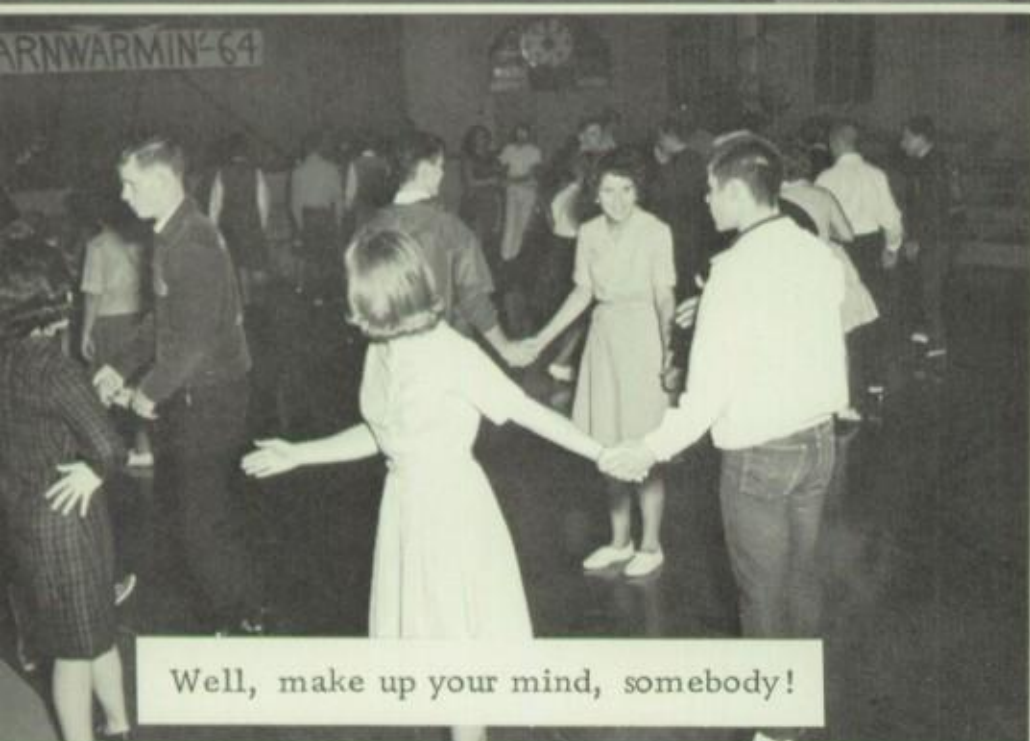

Who's at bat?

Faster, Alvin!

Now, what was I saying?

Well, make up your mind, somebody!

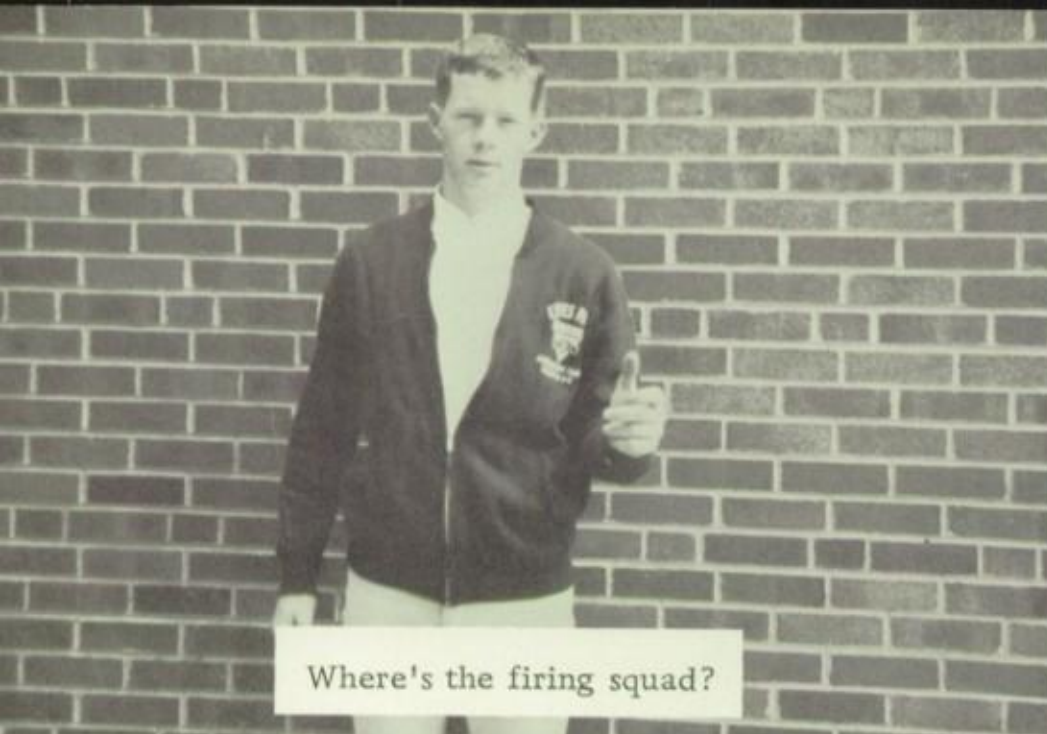

Just follow the devil!

BARNWARMIN-64

Isn't anyone happy except Georgia?

Where's the firing squad?

Did I mark that like I wanted?

NOVEMBER

November was a very busy month, beginning with Johnny Jeans telling the student body of his experiences at the Fellowship of Christian Athletes conference in Estes Park, Colorado. This was just one of many activities, because November was filled with elections, contests, pep assemblies, ball games, meetings, and an occasional "regular" class.

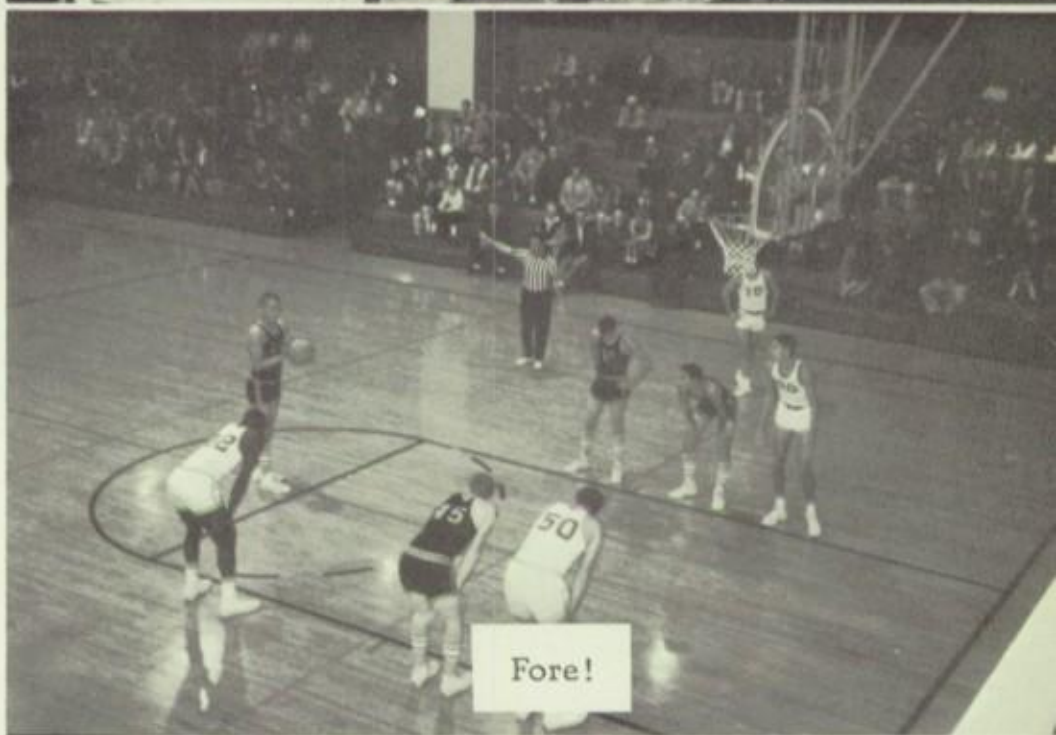

The elections were held to choose Miss Merry Christmas, the yearbook queen, and students who were to be honored in the personality poll.

The first student council movie was shown and enjoyed by all students. The F. H. A. style show provided an interesting break from "dull" classes.

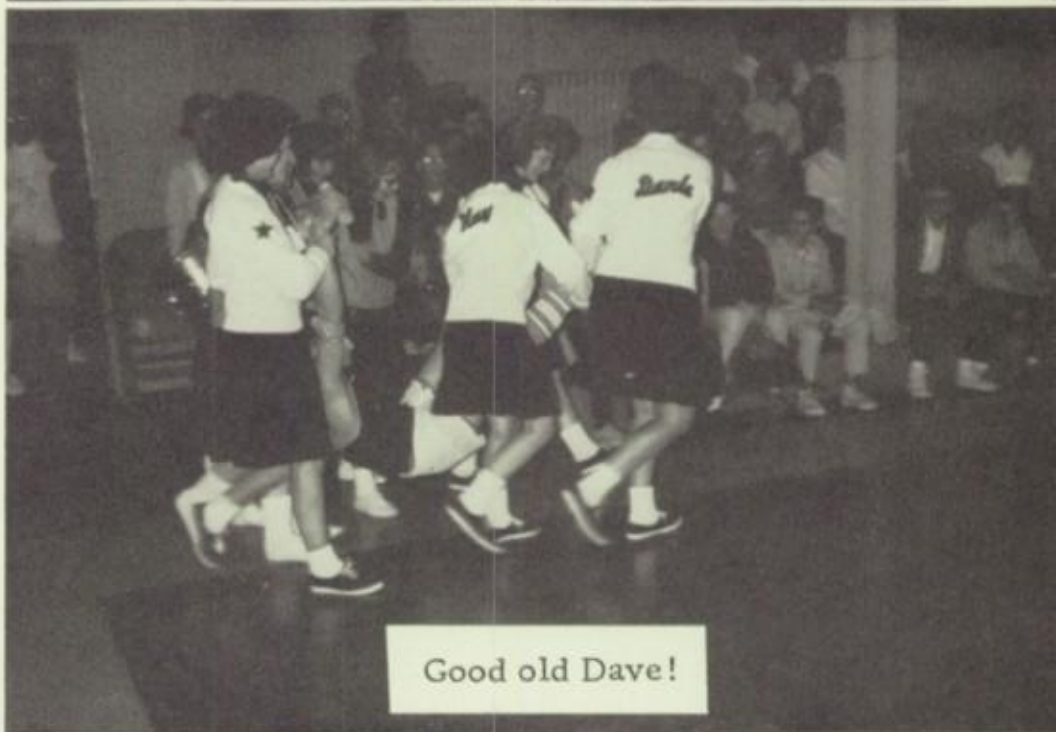

Alvin Cohu represented the black and gold as D. H. S. served as host to the American Legion Oratorical Contest for Newton County.

Students needed lots of money this month as orders were taken for yearbooks, junior rings, and senior announcements.

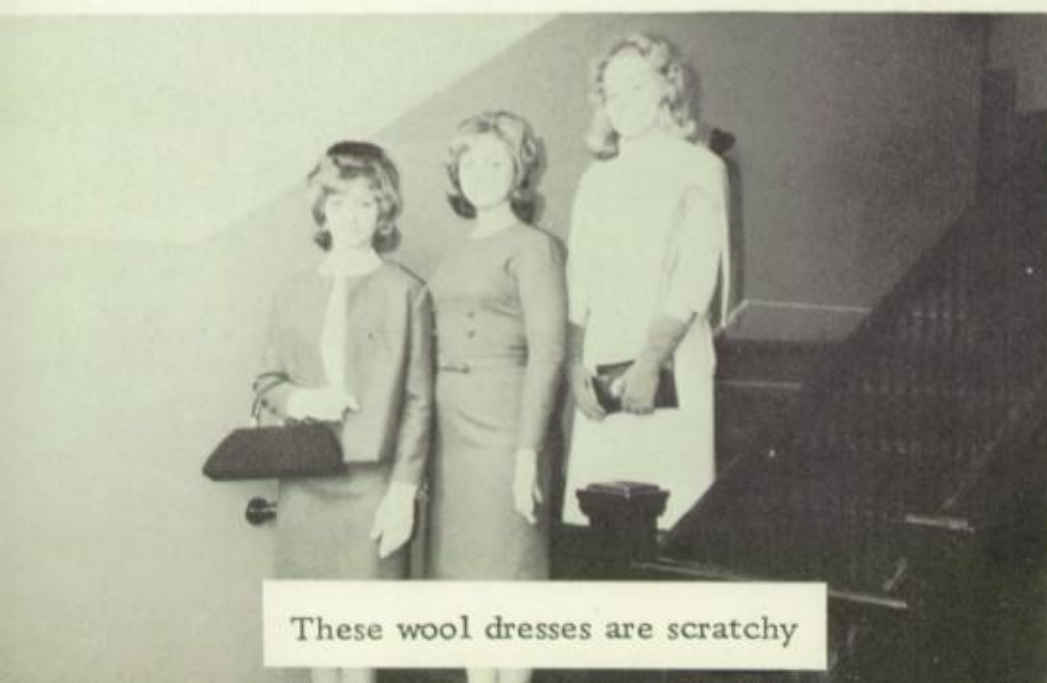

American Education Week was observed with an open house, and the month finally ended with a concert by the Harding College Choir (including Diamond's own, Connie Taylor '63).

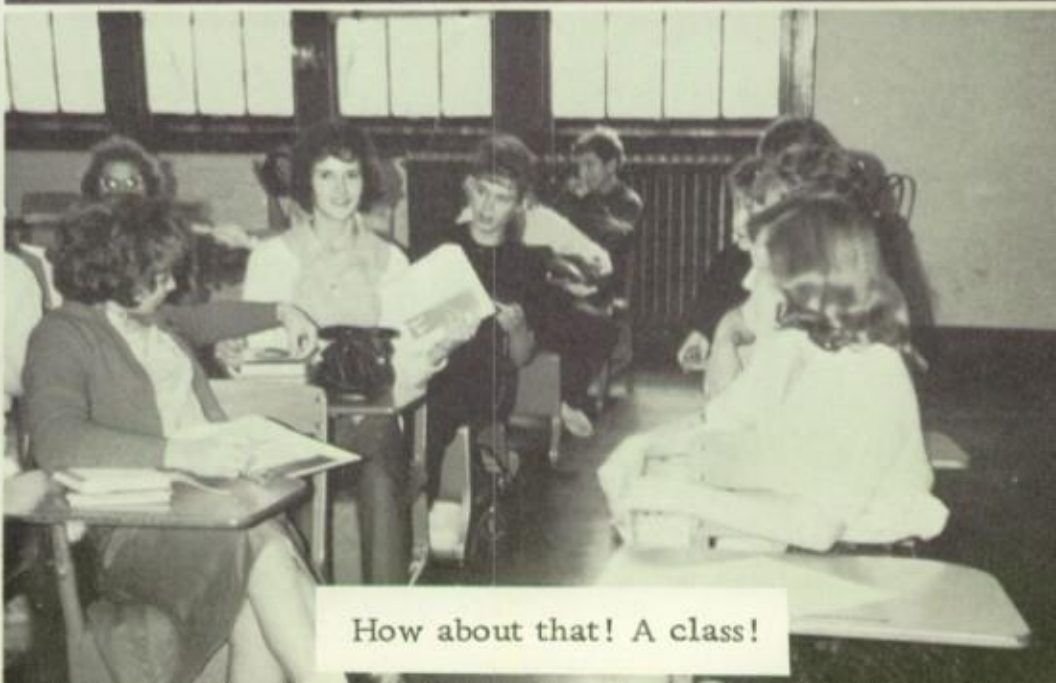

Fore!

Good old Dave!

These wool dresses are scratchy

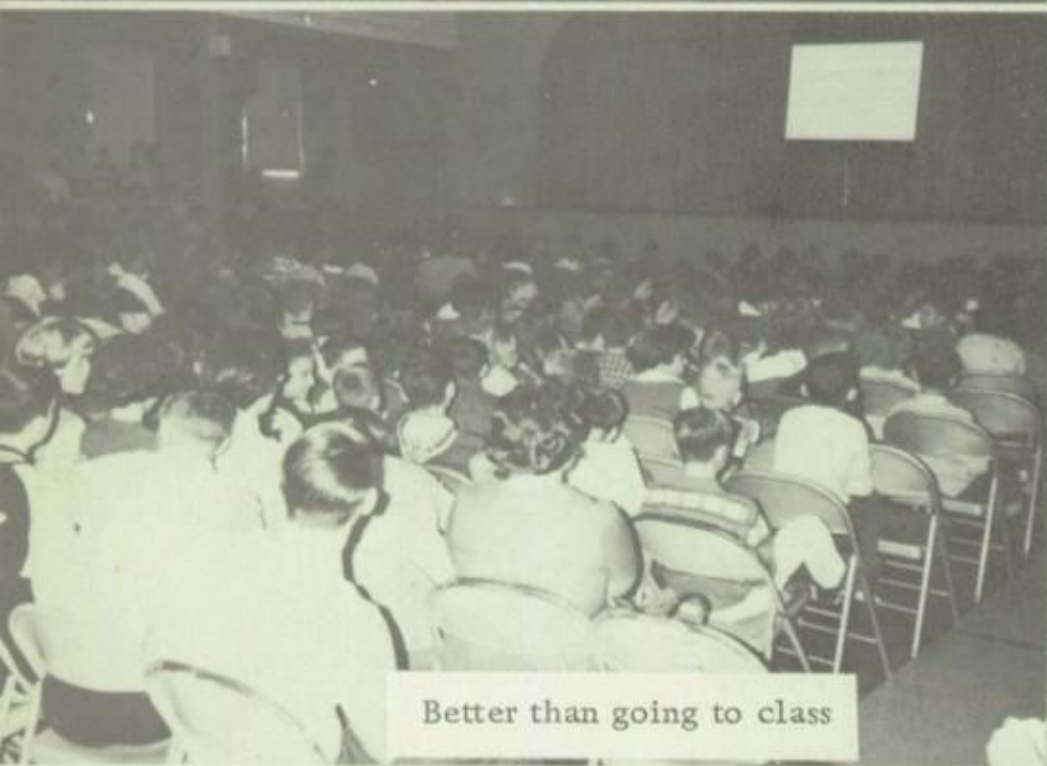

How about that! A class!

What's the score?

I really hated to give him that spanking, but . . .

Sing out, Connie!

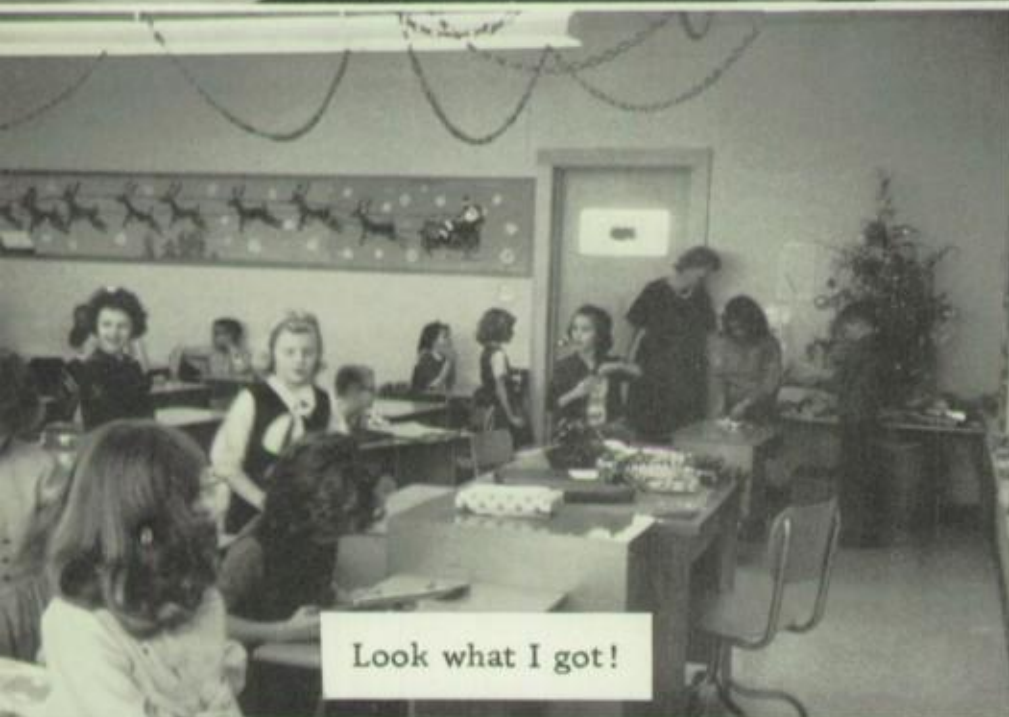

Don't drive too fast!

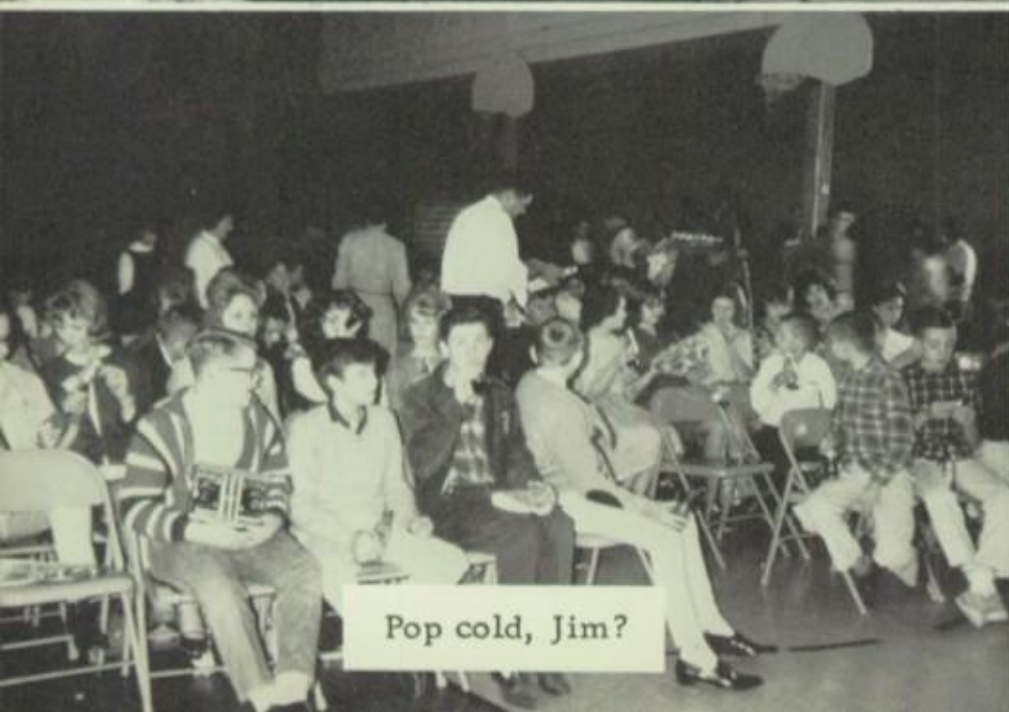

Keep those lines straight on the turns!

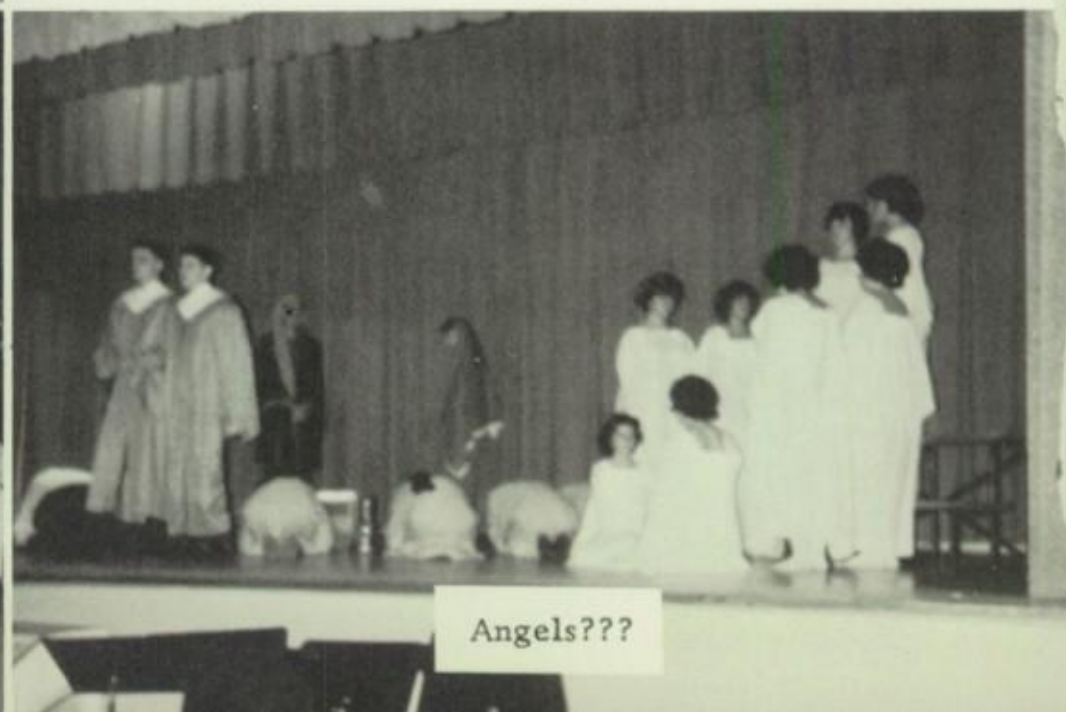

None for me?

Look what I got!

Pop cold, Jim?

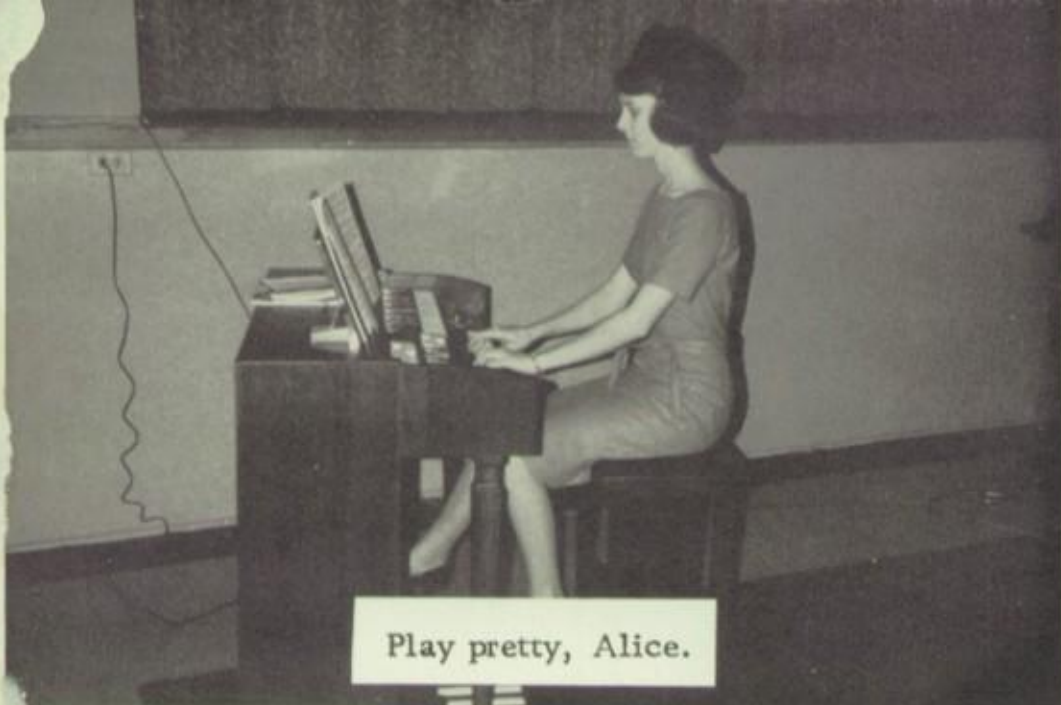

Angels???

DECEMBER

Br-r-r-r! December was mighty cold and Christmas was in the air. Joy Hirshey, Diamond's Miss Merry Christmas, appeared with the band in the Joplin, Neosho, and Monett Christmas Parades.

December had a whirl-wind schedule of parties, basketball games and tournaments, programs, and caroling. The Wildcats must have had the Christmas spirit in the hearts because they won the Sportsmanship trophy at the Neosho Basketball Tournament.

The music departments of the elementary grades and high school, under the direction of Mr. Dieckhoff and Mr. Garrison, teamed up and presented an excellent Christmas program. To end the month, except for Christmas vacation, the student body enjoyed the annual Christmas party and gift exchange.

Play pretty, Alice.

Who said good sportsmanship doesn't pay?

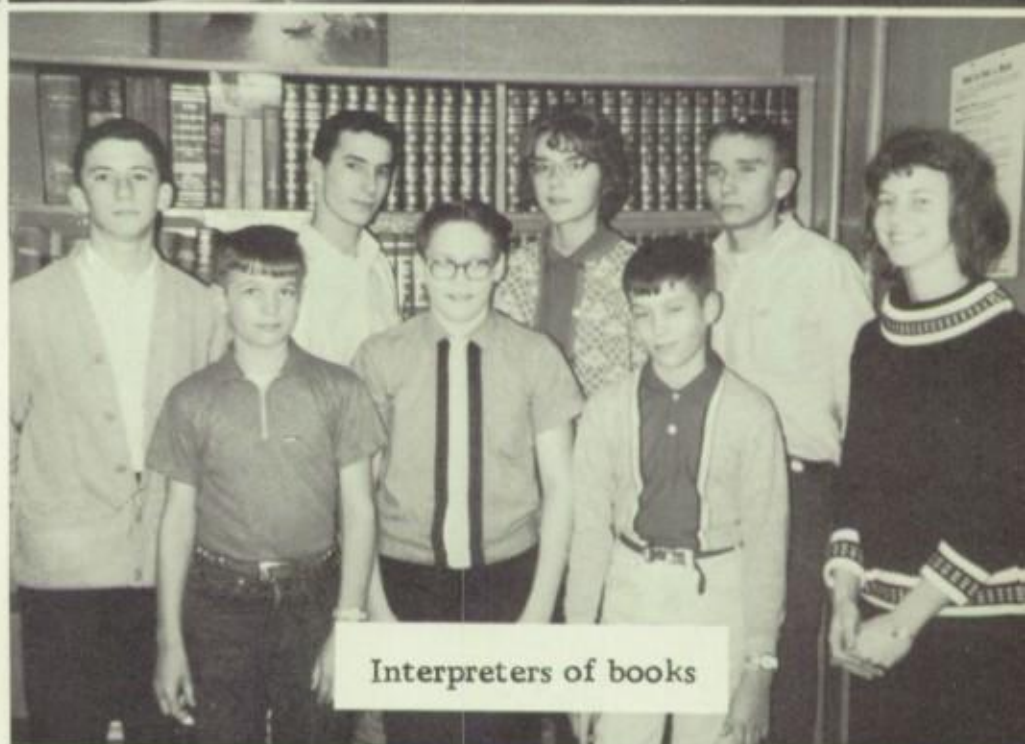

JANUARY

January was quite a let-down after the holidays. The students came back to school only to be faced with semester exams and grade cards.

"Where's Grandma?" was the prime concern of the junior class. They worked diligently and presented a fine play. By the way, they found Grandma!

During the last half of the month, things really began to swing. Construction on the new gym was begun, Georgia Turner was crowned '65 Homecoming Queen, and our band participated in the annual Little Eight Massed Band Concert at Goodman.

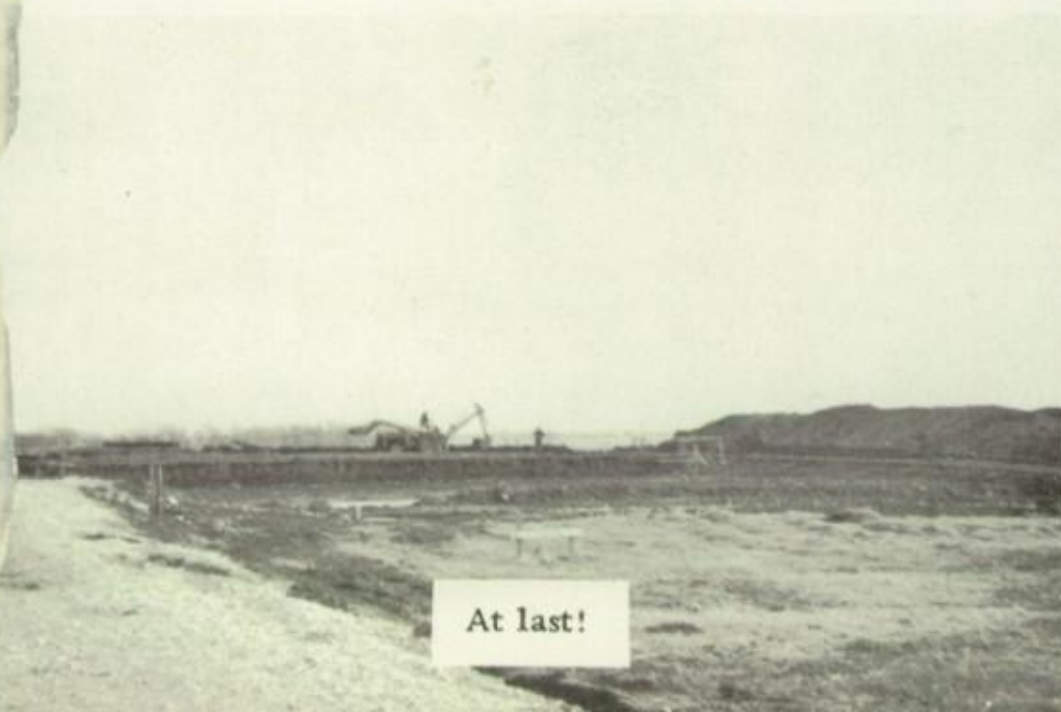

Come to think of it, January wasn't quite so dull after all!
